Strands of Action	If Ohio's Part C program	Then local programs	And families	Then
Quality of Child and Family Assessments	identifies areas where improvement or additional information is needed related to assessing social-emotional strengths and needs through the assessment process, including the COS and creates, updates, or makes available resources, trainings, and data to address these needs	will conduct thorough, functional child and family assessments that identify children's social-emotional strengths and needs and families' priorities and concerns	will have a thorough understanding of their children's socialemotional strengths and needs.
Quality of IFSP Outcomes	identifies areas where improvement or additional information is needed related to the development of high quality, individualized IFSP outcomes supporting social-emotional development and creates, updates, or makes available resources, trainings, and data to address these needs	with families, will develop IFSP outcomes that support social-emotional development and address families' priorities and concerns	will actively participate in developing IFSP outcomes that support social-emotional development and address their priorities and concerns.	an increased percent children served in EI will exit the program having substantially increased their growth in socialemotional skills.
Delivery of Needed Services	identifies areas where improvement or additional information is needed related to supporting social-emotional development through evidence-based service delivery and creates, updates, or makes available resources, trainings, and data to address these needs	will deliver evidence-based El services to support children's social-emotional development	will have confidence in and the ability to support their children's social-emotional development.
	Chaut Taum	lutoum odiata		Lawa Tawa

Short-Term Intermediate Long-Term